The Entrepreneurship, Innovation, and Incubation Cell (EIIC) organized an interactive session titled "Inside EIIC: Student Interaction Session" with the objective of introducing students to the mission, vision, and activities of the cell. This session aimed to foster awareness, ignite entrepreneurial thinking, and encourage student participation in various innovation and startup-related initiatives. To introduce the EIIC and its core functions. To share success stories and startup journeys of alumni. To inform students about upcoming opportunities such as ideation challenges, workshops, and funding support. To clarify the roles students can play in entrepreneurship and innovation ecosystems. The session was well-received, with active engagement and positive feedback from students. Many participants expressed enthusiasm to pursue entrepreneurial ventures and explore innovation as a career path. The session successfully bridged the gap between students and the institutional startup ecosystem.
